

Bag Bank Bandit, Loot

By GLENN LOGAN

FRANKFORT -- Wearing a falseface with mustache and topped with black hair, a 16-year-old youth carrying a pillowcase in one hand and a cocked pistol in the other, walked into the Frankfort State Bank about 7:50 o'clock last Friday night. He walked out with $35,000.

With a sweeping gesture of the pistol, which made the weapon appear to cover everyone, a witness said, the bandit ordered those in the money section to fill the pillowcase. The bank staff followed the order but in the meantime Cashier James P. Walker pressed an alarm button. It is a silent alarm.

Police Chief A.D. Massey got the alert at his home a few blocks away and Police Officer Wayne Mangun in the squad car received it, as did Officer Ronald Reed at his home. Mangun sped to the bank and pulled up across from the entrance on Nebraska St. just as the bandit, still wearing his disguise, and carrying gun and pillowcase came around the back of the car he had parked in front of the bank.

"This is the police! Stop!" Mangun commanded, leveling his pistol.

The youth grabbed the door handle on his car. Mangun fired. The bandit succeeded in getting the door open, flung the sack inside and scrambled into the seat. Mangun fired more shots. Meanwhile Chief Massey arrived on the scene. The bandit drove off with the chief and Mangun close behind.

They went to Center Rd. and the robber turned left on Sauk Trail. The two officers had fired several more shots. One shot by Chief Massey tore a big hole in a window after the turn on Sauk Trail.

The bandit stopped and after alighting from the car threw himself down on the pavement. Officer Reed also arrived at the bank in time to join the pursuit.

"Don't shoot!" he begged. "I give up -- I give up!"

The officers handcuffed him and put him in the squad.

Money Takes Most Council Time

LOCKPORT -- Bids for comprehensive and automobile fleet insurance were opened at the Monday night Lockport City Council meeting. The council discovered that bidders had proposed a variety of coverage, making it difficult to see who was really the low bidder.

More than an hour of the council's time was spent on this. A decision was made to have Gordon McCluskey, public works director, telephone the insurance companies. He is to make sure they understand the coverage.

Don Murphy, city clerk, asked the council to authorize the First National Bank of Lockport to invest motor fuel tax funds in treasury bills. This brought a lengthy discussion and the proposal was defeated four to two.

Murphy then told the board it was "asinine" to allow $49,000 in the fuel tax fund to be idle and not earn interest. Discussion followed. Swen Nelson, who is finance chairman, was authorized to talk with bank officials. The funds must be kept separate, even though they are already earmarked for projects.

Don McGraw requested that the council consider changing the number of liquor licenses in the city from 17 to 18. He was told that this is a matter for the liquor commissioner, who is the mayor, George Nordstrom.

Perhaps in jest, McGraw said the old First National Bank building would be good for a "sharp bar with good entertainment."

Alderman George Wolfe suggested that a letter be sent to Crest Hill authorities stating disappointment that boxcars can be burned in that city when there is a southeast wind. He asserted the smoke would blow through Lockport under these circumstances.

McCluskey said that the mayor had been requested by Ronald Strahanoski, the president of the District 91 Board of Education, for a joint meeting between the city council and the District 91 board.

Apparently, present plans are not for a public meeting. The council members assumed discussion would be about the old Central School in the heart of Lockport.

Ceremonies Will Mark Opening

LEMONT -- The Lemont United Methodist Church will move to its new church building in ceremonies this Sunday morning. The public has been invited to attend.

The new building is at 25 W. Custer St. There is still some finishing work to be done, according to the Rev. Don Leo, pastor, but the building is ready to house the congregation comfortably after many months of construction.

The old church building is at 306 Lemont St. It is a community landmark and has served the congregation for more than 108 years. The building that will be left behind is noted for its native stone construction and its familiar white steeple.

It was built in 1861 at a cost of $2,000. The membership numbered 27 then.

Rev. Leo said, "The continuing love for this old structure is evident in the fact that the present membership is concerned that it will somehow continue to serve the community of Lemont in a useful and appropriate way."

Church board members have proposed sale of the building to the village for use as a library, or as a historical monument. A hall across the street is also for sale.

The new church will serve a growing congregation, now numbering about 350. The cost of the new church is 100 times that of 1861. It will provide additional educational space, "which has been the greatest need," said

Rev. Leo.

The schedule for this Sunday, Feb. 22, includes a final worship service in the stone church on Lemont St. at 10 a.m. An auto procession to the new church will be at 10:30. The first worship in the new church will begin at 11 a.m. Refreshments and an open house will follow at 11:30.

A more complete ceremony of consecration will be at a later date when construction is completed in every detail.

REFLECTIONS ON ELECTIONS

Vote Is No, Prexy Mum

By MARGE RATCLIFFE

LOCKPORT -- The "Tax-payers Revolt" marches on. The unofficial tally of votes cast in District 205 Saturday, Feb. 14 is as follows:

- The educational rate increase, which asked the voters for approval to raise the rate from 92 cents to $1.44 was defeated; 5348 voters said "no". There were 2723 "yes" votes.

- The building proposal, which asked for $7.9 million to finance the construction of additions to East and West High Schools, and a new high school in Bolingbrook was defeated by 3,459 votes.

What happens next is anybody's guess. William Brill, president of the District 205 board of education, asked to comment on the results of the election said, "No comment." He then added that no statement will be forthcoming until the board has had a chance to meet. (The board had previously scheduled a meeting for Thursday, Feb. 19 to canvass the votes.)

If you should walk up and down the streets of Lockport and question 500 people as to why the referendum failed, you might possibly get 500 different answers. And yet Lockport seems to be very little different from towns all over the country who are having financial problems with their schools.

Obviously, new ways must be sought to finance schools. Mrs. J. L. Boulet, of Lockport, spoke before the Constitutional Convention's general government committee last week in Joliet.

Mrs. Boulet offered suggestions to the committee which in her opinion would help school districts to pass referenda. She feels that tax assessors should be chosen, trained, licensed, and bonded by the state. Those assessing industrial and commercial property, Mrs. Boulet suggests, should be either specialists trained by the state, or perhaps qualified real estate appraisers, with the job awarded on the basis on a bid.

She proposed that a time limit be placed on the disposition of protested tax bills exceeding a certain figure; a limit of one year, with no negotiations after that time would prevent the situation District 205 has just experienced -- a sum in settlement of a large tax bill protested in 1967.

Mrs. Boulet also spoke with regard to developers, who buy up large tracts of land, and in turn, the price of land for schools goes up. She feels a community should have the right to pass an ordinance requiring developers to donate land or its equivalent for all elementary and high schools. This law, Mrs. Boulet suggested, could also encompass the community's need for parks and municipal buildings.

She concluded her remarks by proposing that persons who are 65 years of age and older be exempted from that portion of increase in taxes because of schools.

Detail Spending Plan For $43,790 District Grant

By LOUISE SCHALLER

ROMEOLVILLE -- Following an hour executive session, announcement was made of a grant of $43,790 in federal funds. James Gove, administrative assistant, made the announcement at the regular District 96 board meeting on Feb. 9, in Park View School.

Board members voted to authorize hiring of a director, and a secretary for the program, and also approved employing James Gove, Patrick Page and Paul Swinford for the month of July. Their salaries for the month will be paid from this grant.

State Senator Harris Fawell has requested, via a letter to the superintendent of the Naperville schools, that a 30 to 40-day delay in granting of zoning to Levitt Builders be considered. Fawell said he was making the request because of the impact to the taxpayers.

Levitt Builders are planning to construct homes and duplex housing in an area on Naperville Road which borders on Naperville and extends into District 96. Four hundred acres are actually in District 96 and the student load could be increased by more than seven hundred students.

Robert Noethn recommended that the Illinois School Consulting Service be hired at a cost of $500 to study the area school situation. The fee would be shared by districts concerned. Approval was voted.

A meeting concerning changing of school boundaries was held Feb. 3. Noethn said the meeting brought together officials of District 96 and Naperville school administrators.

Board policy of building space rental in all district schools has been revised and details will be announced at the next board meeting.

Equipment will be purchased at a cost of $335 to continue the dial for education service. Costs will be reduced from $348 per year to $144. Residents of the district can dial 838-0699 and hear a recorded message informing them of the programs and other pertinent information concerning their schools.

District 205 Realigns Accounts In Bond Sale Deal

LOCKPORT -- The Union National Bank of Joliet will purchase second year tax warrants from District 205 in the amount of one million dollars at 6 per cent interest, according to a report at the board's Feb. 12 meeting.

Following this announcement, board member William Waldon made a motion to direct the school treasurer to transfer all District 205 bank accounts from the 1st National Bank of Lockport to the Union National Bank of Joliet as soon as possible.

William Sabo, president of the 1st National Bank, addressed the board regarding the termination of the banking relationship between the district and the bank. Sabo directed some of his remarks to board members who had implied that the bank had been "unresponsive" to the district's needs.

He said the purpose of his announcement was to notify the community of the bank's involvement with the district's current financial problems and to clarify to the general public the bank's position with regard to these account relationships.

"When it became apparent," Sabo continued, "that the district would not have sufficient funds to remain open through the school year, particularly after the defeat of the referendum in December, the school board and administration approached the bank to determine the extent of our ability to purchase second year tax warrants. Herein lies the nub of the problem. We are a federally chartered bank restricted in our lending limit to 10 per cent of capital to any one borrower."

"Finally, in a desperation move, the only bank in our group whose lending limits hadn't been reached agreed to purchase those warrants now held by the 1st National Bank of Lockport which in turn, enabled us to commit to $250,000 in additional monies under the second year warrants. Even this extreme was insufficient to meet the district's needs through the remaining school year."

He concluded his remarks by saying he faced the loss of a long and respected association with great personal distress.

The board also approved a resolution presented by Mrs. Straka that the revolving funds at Lockport Central, West and East be closed out. They will be replaced by one revolving fund at the district level, with a fund of $1,000, with the stipulation that payment is limited to certain items. Textbook refunds will be made in addition to the $1,000.

In other business, the board granted Allen C. McCowan, principal at Lockport East, a leave of absence to work on his doctorate. Superintendent Scholle recommended he be guaranteed an administrative post when he returns, providing school is still in session at the time.

The board received a check for $1,400 from Ralph Colvin, president of the Lockport West Booster club, representing payment of a loan advanced by the board to buy athletic equipment for the school. He received the board's thanks and a round of applause.

William Long, the district's business manager, recommended the board look into possible cutbacks in the cafeteria operation, specifically some of the part-time help.

One item in the superintendent's report, regarding the Area Vocational Site Study was tabled.

During the committee reports, it became apparent that the existing problems with the remodeling of the church to be used for special education purposes is far from resolved. The board still does not have title to the property, so cannot legally award a contract for any remodeling.

Joan Straka, the district's representative on the special education board said that the latter board had sent back the same recommendation which was recently rejected by the 205 board.

Mrs. Straka reported that there is a great deal of animosity on the part of representatives from other boards, regarding the methods in which the remodeling has been handled. She felt that perhaps they could all get together and work out a compromise.

Mrs. Straka's suggestion that 205 drop the 2-cent levy which provides the building funds for the special education co-op, be picked up by some of the grade schools, received no comment, she said.

Harold Scholle, also a member of the special education board, told the board that after a spirited discussion, the resolution comes back to the 205 board to award the contract to Lif Construction Co.

William Brill, board president, commented, "If the resolution is presented to the board tonight, it will be voted down again, and the board will only be faced with more problems."

Work Is On Old Topics

LEMONT -- The village board was told by its police committee head that there is no recommendation yet on changes to an ordinance banning all truck parking from 7 p.m. to 7 a.m.

Bernard Shaf, trustee and committee chairman, at the board meeting a week ago Monday, said, "We'd rather wait" for information from the state of Illinois because "this is a serious matter."

Last November, the board enacted the ordinance. Pickup truck owners spoke out when they found police ticketing their vehicles. They complained the hours were unrealistic.

The board told police to stop issuing tickets while a study is being made. The study continues.

Steps toward a new village hall came haltingly. There was no word on a time for a meeting with fire protection district officials. They have been given first chance to buy the existing town hall complex.

Kujawa had proposed sale of buildings and property owned by the village to help pay for a new hall. Kujawa also said a garage for the five village vehicles could be built on village property east of State St. and north of 127th St.

Jack Weber, buildings and zoning committee chairman, said he would arrange for publication of building permits on a monthly basis, and to give permit copies to police.

The board appeared to frown on a proposal for a zoning change to build a 14-unit apartment building at Peiffer St. on the east side of State St. Plans received zoning board approval, but the village board sent them to the plan commission.

Trustees said they feared conversion of dining rooms into bedrooms would be too easy for tenants or the owner, and that changes could not be policed. Such conversions would create two-bedroom apartments, and they would violate the zoning code.

LEMONT 22 HONOR ASSOCIATION, VFW Post 5819, paid tribute to its oldest active member, John Cogger, with a surprise birthday party to honor his 89th year. Nearly 100 persons attended the party recently. Included in festivities were a potluck dinner, singing and fellowship. John has the duty of retrieving the Colors each evening and has fulfilled this task for the past several years.

Sanatorium Ends Long Service

WILL COUNTY -- The annual report of Sunny Hill Sanatorium has been released recently by the sanatorium board of trustees. The report gives the patient and financial figures for the final year of the institution, which commenced operation in 1924.

On Dec. 1 of last year, the remaining patients in the sanatorium were transferred to Suburban Cook County Sanatorium at Hinsdale for treatment. The Sunny Hill Sanatorium board of trustees will continue to operate an X-ray and chest clinic at the Sanatorium. Many tuberculosis patients will be treated through the clinic. Those who cannot be treated as out patients -- thru the clinic -- will be treated at the Hinsdale Sanatorium.

For many years, the local sanatorium beds were filled constantly with tuberculosis patients needing treatment. With the introduction of anti-tuberculosis medications and surgery, the patient census began to decline throughout the nation, and the need for the old bed-rest type of sanatoria was no longer needed.

The report released by the trustees covers the fifteen-month fiscal year commencing Sept. 1, 1968 and ending Nov. 30, 1969. There were 70 patients at the sanatorium during that period. Fifty-eight were discharged and there were three deaths. Eleven of the discharged patients were surgically treated by Dr. Robert Jensik, chest physician, and the others were treated by medication. One case of carcinoma was uncovered in an admitted patient, and one had Pott's Disease.

There were 7,575 patients X-rayed in the clinic at the request of the patient's family physician. The chest clinic nurse, Charlotte Gurney, dispensed medications to 148 patients. Tuberculin tests given, numbered 317.

while testing of the children in the federal Head Start program numbered 234.

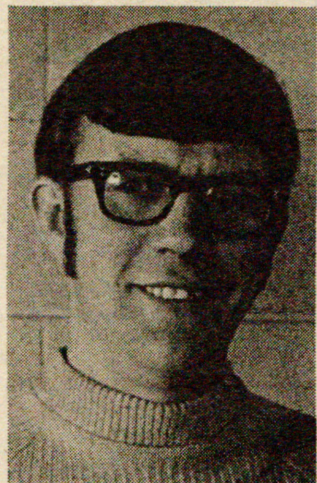

In spite of the fact that the in-patient department of Sunny Hill Sanatorium has closed, the tuberculosis program will be carried on by the sanatorium trustees: Dr. Arthur Fahrner, Dr. Gayle Hufford and James Hall. Dr. Francis R. Prock will continue as medical director and clinician.

Earns Music Doctorate

LEMONT -- Dr. Ronald L. Gould, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Gould of 720 Singer Ave., has received a Doctor of Sacred Music degree from the Union Theological Seminary, New York.

The 1950 graduate of Lemont Township High School is associated professor of music in the Dana School of Music at Youngstown State University, Ohio.

Gould received a bachelor of music degree from North Central College and a master of sacred music degree from Union Theological Seminary. Gould, with his wife, Marcia, and two sons, reside at 1866 Coronado Ave., Youngstown.

DONALD WALDVOGEL, 219 Oak St., Frankfort, is the winner of the annual student achievement recognition program at Joliet Junior College. He received plaque and a check for $100. He is 27 years old, a freshman and intends to teach. Waldvogel is married and has three children. He is majoring in agriculture. Winning at Joliet Junior College entitles him to a chance in the district contest where the prize is $250.

No Trace Found

MOKENA -- An intensive search that covered some five square miles for a light airplane that was believed to have crashed west of here and between U.S. 30 and Francis Rd. occupied police and firemen Tuesday afternoon and half of the night last week.

On Wednesday half a dozen or more volunteers using snowmobiles joined the hunt but no wreckage has been found.

Mokena Police Chief Wayne Ryder and two men; three policemen from New Lenox, including Chief Joseph Wajchert; three members of the county police and four state troopers, as well as a quartet of Mokena firemen, who also had a snowmobile began the search shortly after 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. A plane from Frankfort airport also joined the search. Three telephone calls from three women living west of Mokena launched the hunt. Each of the three informants told of seeing a dark colored plane -- from the description a Piper Cub -- flying low and circling. They said the engine was sputtering and finally became silent and the plane disappeared.

One witness told searchers that she believed the plane came down in the woods on the Oxo Hereford Farm, about three-quarters of a mile west of Mokena. Another thought it disappeared in the vicinity of the Ray Powers farm, another half mile further west off Francis Rd. and it was also reported the plane disappeared north of the Lincoln-Way High School.

Con-Con Rep Is Washington Banquet Guest

LEMONT -- The 38th annual Washington's Day banquet of the Lemont Methodist Men's Club will be Friday, Feb. 20.

It will be the first open-to-the-public event in the new Methodist Church, located at 25 W. Custer. The first services in the new church won't take place until Sunday. So far, only a few small meetings have been held at the church, as members move furnishings there.

Joseph Meek, representative to the Constitutional Convention and one-time candidate for the U.S. Senate, will be the featured speaker. For the third year in a row, the Men's Glee Club from St. Alphonsus Church will present musical entertainment.

Ron Walter will be M.C., without his magic show. The dinner will be served by the women of the WSCS and will feature roast beef and cherry pie. This banquet for men of Lemont is expected to serve about 250 men. Men interested in attending who have not been contacted should call Walt Tedens at 257-2121, or Rev. Brian Leo (257-5210).

Appoint Teske To Board

MOKENA -- Robert L. Teske, Wolf Rd., has been appointed to the Mokena village board to succeed the late Henry Clark. His term will run until the regular village election in 1971.

He is employed by M. H. Detrich Engineers, dealing with heating enclosures for industry. Teske is in the sales division.

He is 29 years old and is the son of Wilbur Teske, food store operator. Married to the former Lynne Hansen, the couple have a 6-year-old daughter, Barbara, and a 5-year-old son, Bobby. They are expecting another. He has just completed a term as president of the St. John's Church Council.

Clark was police commissioner, among his other duties, but that work will be taken over by Trustee Anthony Dina.

Kick The Habit

SOUTHWEST -- Smokers wishing to kick the habit might benefit by attending a clinic, Mar. 1, at the Joliet YMCA, 215 North Ottawa St.

Mayor Will Tuttle appointed Harold Beebe civil defense director and the appointment was confirmed by the board. Beebe, who resides in Brightwood, is a commercial airplane pilot.

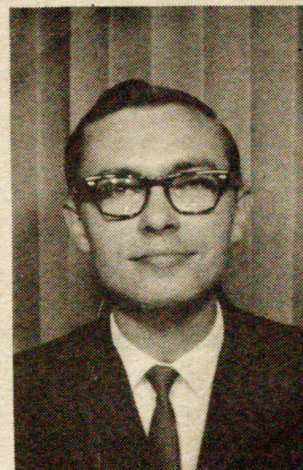

The time for filling out a form relative to train movements on Mokena crossings has been extended to April 1. And relative to grade crossings the village is to make a 24-hour check of train, vehicular and pedestrian traffic using the Hamilton Rd. crossing.

Walter Yunker, Frankfort Township highway commissioner, has filed a petition with Illinois Commerce Commission asking for gates and flasher lights on the Schoolhouse Rd. crossing at the north limits. Now the village board has instructed its attorney, George E. Sangmesiter, to draw a similar petition for safeguards on the Hamilton St. crossing.

Bids for the remodeling of the former church now serving the Mokena District Library and will soon also serve as a village hall are to be opened March 1. The library will continue to occupy its present quarters.

The village will occupy what was the church auditorium. The council chamber will be located there and the space can also be utilized for public meetings. Several offices will also be set up on this floor.

The village board has approved the action of the zoning board of appeals in reverting the acreage owned by Leo Marcoux west of St. Mary Church to its original classification of R-1. It had been rezoned to R-2 but no use was made of it within the specified time so it goes back to R-1.

Additional forms requesting a federal grant for storm sewers and street improvements have been turned over to the planning commission to be filled out. These grants, it was pointed out, are the kind that call for matching funds by governing body making applications.

There was also discussion of junk cars. Seven of eight of these derelict automobiles have been disposed of and the village would like to rid the community of some more. On July 1 a new state law becomes effective that will enable officials to dispose of junk autos without going through the rigamarole of getting titles for them.

Slate Festival

SOUTHWEST -- The Lincoln-Way Band Boosters extends an invitation to all interested area adults and high school students to participate in a Lenten Choral Festival to be held at Lincoln-Way on March 22 at 3 p.m. The work to be performed is the Requiem by Gabriel Faure featuring soprano and baritone soloists, choir and organ.

Conductor for the festival will be Randolph F. Kummer, member of the Lincoln-Way music department. There are 13 church choirs that have indicated an interest, that will form a chorus of 100 voices. Anyone else who wishes to sing, but does not belong to a choir, should contact Kummer.

Combined rehearsals will be on March 1, 8, 15 and 21 at 1:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Previous to these rehearsals, individuals and church choirs will be responsible for preparation of the music.

The festival will be on Palm Sunday and will be open to the public. A free will offering will be taken to help cover the cost of music and programs.

Face Property Tax Loss, Review School Revenue

FRANKFORT -- Like most governing bodies the Frankfort grade school board (Dist. 157-C) is concerned with finances.

It is facing a loss in revenue of approximately $25,000 because in voting an income tax the Illinois general assembly knocked out the personal property tax, according to figures given Supt. Leroy Olson.

The personal property tax levied in 1969 is collectible this spring but no such levy will be made this year so there will be no personal property tax to collect in 1971.

Under the income tax law a twelfth of the state's take is to be distributed to counties and municipalities on a per capita basis. If a county or municipality wishes to share its part of the income tax with a school district or districts it may do so, as far as the law is concerned.

The Joliet schools recently sought some of the income tax money but so far have met with a refusal. Municipalities, for the most part are also having financial problems, and counties too, it was reported.

The area school boards are expected to discuss ways for relief. The $1,500 exemption on real estate owned by persons 65 years old or over will also cause a further drop in revenue, it was pointed out.

When the grade school board meets March 9 it is expected to take action on plans for the coming year as relating to staff and the budget. Supt. Olson has submitted figures for the board to study. The enrollment is increasing and there will be eight more classrooms in service next year.

Some remodeling is being done at Frankfort school and an addition built at Chlesea. There were funds to complete six classrooms and close in the space on the second floor of the addition. Interest and savings through keeping costs at a minimum will enable the board to have two of the second floor rooms finished and furnished so that a total of eight rooms will be available there. Eight rooms, Supt. Olson said, means eight more teachers.

The board approved a reduction in the summer band program from an eight weeks' course to seven. Perry Friedman, band director, had recommended the shorter course.

A.E. Berg's bid for installing the new playground equipment at Chlesea school was rejected and the matter tabled for further study.

Aid And Comfort

WILL COUNTY -- It's just about time to confront the task of filing your income tax returns. Farmers in the county can get some assistance by asking the Joliet Social Security office for the pamphlet "Special Information for Self-Employed Farmers." It answers many questions about reporting farm income for social security purposes.

THERE SEEMS TO BE a lot of interest at the garage behind 29 Stephen St., Lemont. It went up in flames early Saturday afternoon. Damage was estimated at $2,500 by the owner, and $800 on a car and truck inside. Ralph Shroyer owned the garage, John Shroyer the auto, and James Sierzchula the truck. Set Test Work LEMONT -- The contest pieces of the High School and Grade School bands will be featured at the monthly meeting of the Lemont Band Boosters. The meeting is Tuesday, Feb. 24, at 7:30 p.m. at the Lemont High School.

Jean Blum, spokesman, said that all persons are welcome to attend. Another attraction is the presentation of band students who entered winning posters in the recent Fun Fair poster contest with their prizes. The posters showed fluent originality and can be seen in local places of business, she said.

The annual Fun Fair, sponsored by the Band Boosters, will be Saturday, March 7, from 5 to 9 p.m. at the Lemont Public Grade School.

McCarthy Road. The various attractions are designed to appeal to people of all ages.

Co-chairmen of the event, Mrs. Evelyn Gawenda and Mrs. Mary Reinke report that their committee heads have been hard at work. They are promising an interesting evening of familiar favorite events and pleasant new surprises.

Perception

LOCKPORT -- "Perception -- The Learning Process" is the theme of the Reading inservice staff meeting to be held for Lockport High School District 205 on Thursday, Feb. 19, at 3:45 p.m. at the Lockport East High School Little Theater.

THE HANDICAPPED ARE employed and trained at the Will County Sheltered Workshop at 362 East Cass St., Joliet. The two persons at right are packaging plastic forks, spoons and napkins for airline use. The young man at left is packaging stove burner parts. Mrs. Jerry Asal, a supervisor, is standing. Voluntary work and contributions support the workshop, which is looking for work for the blind, crippled and retarded persons it helps. Light assembly work, sorting, packaging, guaging, folding are among skills that can be utilized. Persons can contact the center, 727-3205, for more information. (GRAPHIC Photo)

THOSE "LIGHT snow flurries" predicted recently gave a magic touch to trees and shrubbery but it made a mess of roads and where crews neglected ted to clear them the driving was quite hazardous. The car at left struck a hummock of ice on 191st St. east of Mokena and west of the Rock Island tracks and went sailing out into a field. The driver Susan Arnold, of Mokena, apparently escaped unhurt. At right is a stretch of Francis Rd., west of Mokena. Two days after the snow fell Francis road was a mess from Cedar Rd. to Mokena, and 191st St. wasn't any better.

Discuss Writing Mystic

BEACONRIDGE -- The story of Edgar Kayce, a mystic who had extra-sensory powers of the mind that helped him predict the future, was discussed by the Beaconridge Book Club at its second meeting recently.

About 20 persons came to the Beaconridge clubhouse to discuss the book, "The Sleeping Prophet."

Casual and spirited conversation about the book and other subjects followed, according to Cheryl Serio. This led to selection of "The Fountainhead" by Ayn Rand, for the next reading.

That book will be discussed at the club's next meeting Mar. 2 at 8 p.m. Two special guests will be Nate Pizzaro, hypnotist, and Sylvia Chan, an amateur palm reader from China Town in Chicago.

Two School Posts Open At Frankfort

FRANKFORT -- The terms of two members of the Frankfort board of education expire in April, Donald Carter and Donald Stupp.

Candidates for the board may file nominating petitions at the school office, Hickory and Oregon streets, between Feb. 25 and March 20.

The price of excessive exposure to sunlight is premature aging and even skin cancer, according to Dr. Albert M. Klingman, dermatologist at University of Pennsylvania.

After long testing, Dr. Klingman has come to the conclusion that "skin deterioration is exactly proportionate to the amount of sun exposure." For additional proof, he calls attention to the fact that the unexposed skin of the buttocks, even in aged persons, is still comparatively young.

While skin cancer can usually be successfully removed, he said, skin aging due to excessive exposure is irreversible. He explains that prolonged exposure to the sun interferes with the elastic quality of the skin, causes decreased collagen, and produces abnormal cells in disorderly patterns. "The final stage is one of incredible connective tissue disorganization which culminates in a long process of growth and decay," he said.

He is critical of cosmetic and drug advertisements which emphasize the stigma of wrinkles, mottling, discolored bloodvessels, warts, moles, dryness and sagging, yet never emphasize the sun's role as a causative factor.

For insistent sunworshippers, he advises frequent applications of sunscreen lotions or ointments. "Fortunately," he concludes, "more effective sunscreens based on p-aminobenzoic acid and its esters are being developed."

NUCLEAR PACE-MAKER--Dr. Hans Born of Hamburg, Germany, has developed an atomic battery for the implanted heart pacemaker which converts nuclear energy into electricity and has a very long life without recharging.

DRUG PERIL--Lomotil, a useful antidiarrheal drug for adults, is extremely dangerous when swallowed by children. It can cause severe breathing difficulties, loss of consciousness and sometimes death.

OLD DRUG, NEW USE--Fibrinolytic, once a popular drug for combatting bloodclotting, is now being advocated by Dr. Curtis Wilcox of the Tucson Medical Center for the treatment of pulmonary embolisms.

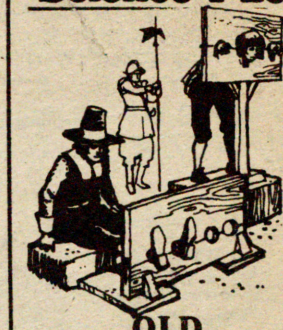

DIET MYSTERY--The Masai of East Africa eat a high cholesterol diet consisting almost exclusively of milk, blood, beef, and goat meat. Yet they have been found to have extremely low blood cholesterol levels and no arteriosclerosis.

HEALING FACTOR--Dr. R.B. Bottomly and a team at the University of Oklahoma have found a direct correlation between body zinc stores and the rate of wound healing. Plasma zinc levels fall rapidly immediately after injury and rise to normal levels during the healing period.

CANCER TEST--Another test for cancer has been proven to be 100% accurate. Developed at McGill University by Dr. Phil Gold, the test detects rectal and colon cancers.

PUNISHMENT

Frequently used in the American colonies, the pillory locked the arms and head of a person between two wooden boards. Another device, the stocks, held a person's legs. The pillory and stocks were used to punish persons who committed minor offenses. The Puritans brought the pillory with them to New England.

Slingshot Goes To Solar Edge

Copyright, 1970

World Book Science Service

Now that man has landed on the Moon, where do you think he will go next? To Mars? Venus? Wherever the next astronauts go, the trip will take much longer than going to the Moon and back. Let's imagine a trip to the planet Pluto, at the very edge of our solar system.

You might think that a spaceship to Pluto would need giant rockets and tons of fuel. But space scientists think that they have found a "slingshot" to help the spaceship on its way. The slingshot is the planet Jupiter -- the largest planet going around the Sun. Because Jupiter is so big, its gravity is very strong. That means that it pulls with great force on everything that gets near it.

If a spaceship flies close to Jupiter, the great planet's gravity will pull on the spaceship, too. The spaceship will go faster and faster as it gets closer to Jupiter. Then the astronauts can steer right past Jupiter towards Pluto. They will be moving at very fast speeds, thanks to Jupiter's gravity, and they probably won't even have to turn on their rockets except to do a bit of steering.

This means that giant rockets and giant fuel tanks will not have to be used. There will be more room for the astronauts to move around, and more room for valuable instruments. No one knows for sure if this will work, but most scientists agree that it will.

The distance from the Earth to the Sun is 93 million miles. But that is only a short distance compared to the size of our solar system. To find out how far it is across our solar system, solve the arithmetic problem in the picture. Write the answer on the line below the equation.

SOLUTION: The diameter of the solar system is seven and a half billion miles (7,500,000,000).

OPINION PAGE

A Vote For Youth

One of the many proposals presented to the Illinois Constitutional Convention is the lowering of the voting age in Illinois. In many respects it would seem this proposition should be high on the priority list for consideration by the delegates.

The increasing dissatisfaction of our youth with the politics of their elders must be recognized as more than just a few malcontents flexing their muscles. A growing disenchantment with the "establishment" has, and is, attracting many of our youngsters who we would have referred to in the past as "normal students." What has occurred is a realization by our youth that they are not being dealt with rationally.

To say those under 21 years of age must pay taxes, die for their country and in many instances submit to adult law in civil and criminal cases, and then deny them the right to vote is unfair.

Today's young people enjoy more freedom, better education and more luxury than at any time in our history. This apparent enrichment of their being has not kept pace with their responsibility in forming their destinies. Despite their greater knowledge, or because of it, some have shown irresponsibility in their actions while many others have displayed remarkable insight and understanding of today's problems.

That our country should not accept, and benefit by, the new thinking of our youth is a social and political problem we can no longer afford to ignore.

A lowering of the voting age should be written into the proposed new Illinois constitution. Those 18 years of age, or perhaps 19 years old, should have a voice in determining the laws by which they are bound. The youth of our state, and the country, are sophisticated enough to understand the needs of our land. Perhaps they know or can find the answers to many of the problems with which the current voting populace have been unable to cope with on an acceptable level.

The many complex issues facing our state as a whole must be met with fresh and innovative solutions. Taxation, education, environmental control, pollution and local government has a great need for the new approach.

Our government was founded with the idea that man needed to govern himself with fairness and equality for all. It is time we reaffirmed this ideal and looked to new horizons in seeking out that which is the best for all of our citizens. Youth is the answer and with guidance, support and confidence they will rise to the occasion with a vigor long dormant in our government.

We urge the Constitutional Convention to follow in the footsteps of our founding fathers. Bold concepts are needed to realize bold ambitions. Our country is not old; our state is not old; our thinking must be realigned to fulfill the dream of ever greater things. Our thinking must accept our youth and their dream.

Needed: Talent

This town needs some talent.

We say this about Lemont, at this moment, because in April the taxpayers in Community Consolidated School District 113 will be going to the polls to elect four men to fill posts on a seven-man board of education.

That's more than half the membership of the board, more than half of the people who have played a major role in bringing a new 500-pupil school into operation just this semester.

It's a tremendous loss of talent, and the vacant posts will have to be filled by persons of worthy qualifications. After all, in a meeting just this past week, one board member seriously called for reorganizing to build another brand new school which he thinks will be needed within five years.

There won't be any election to the village board of trustees this year, but three seats will be vacant in spring of 1971.

The other local boards of education, the service clubs, the church organizations, the PTA's, the chamber of commerce, meanwhile, will all be conducting their periodic elections. How well they do in recruiting talent will be important to all of us.

The demand for leadership talent is widespread. And it's needed in Lemont, and it's needed elsewhere in the southwestern section of the metropolitan area.

The '70's will bring more people, and this influx will bring demands for solutions in the frustrating tasks of serving expanding communities.

Villages and towns in the region -- because they may have not done so up until now -- must pursue, groom, encourage and develop the persons in their localities to assume governing tasks, and be good at them.

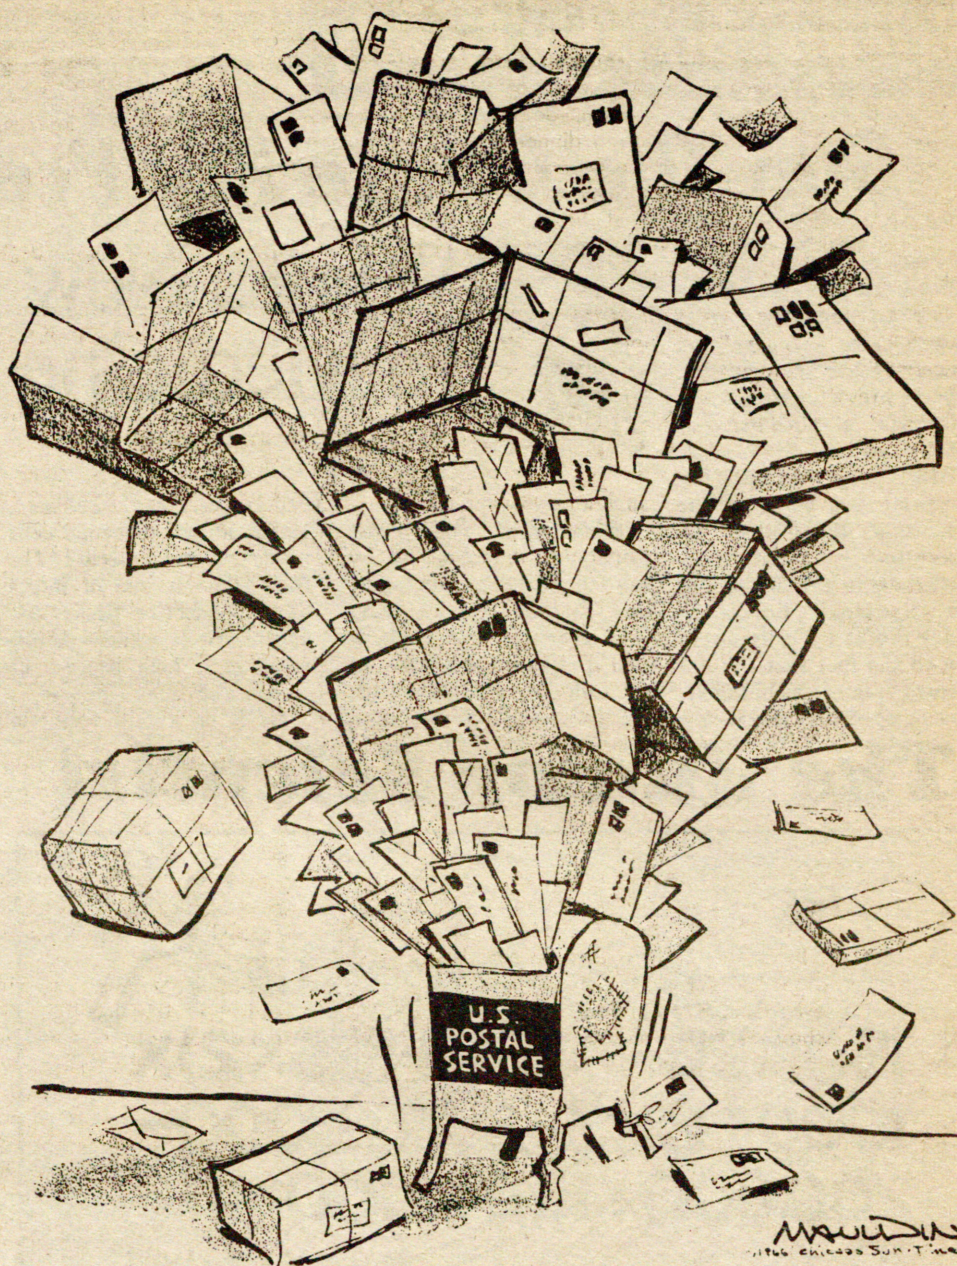

Where will they come from?

It's not easy to find persons to run for village or board of education trustee or our other local government positions. There's little recognition beyond the dams of angered patrons at smokey meeting sessions.

It's not easy to find persons who are honest, who are dedicated and dogged in seeing that the small and large tasks are finally taken care of, who are wise enough to understand that they must represent all constituents rather than the special interests.

We like the view of Harry Mentch, a Lemont village trustee, who says that our young men and women are the source of talent and leadership that is needed now and that will be at a premium soon.

Service and other organizations are the logical initial training ground for our leaders-to-be, he reasons. Recruit from the ranks of those organizations and what other groups you can. Here, you will find the persons to serve in the higher government and education roles.

Love That Jail!

Reporting on the condition of the Will County jail is a time honored function of grand juries. For more than 50 years, while the old jail was standing, grand juries described it as unfit for use and recommended that it be replaced. These reports

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor:

An Open Letter to "Concerned" Students.

It warms my heart to see so many young people "concerned" about education. This is right, and as it should be. Now let's make this a personal positive approach.

If your abilities are for an A, B, or C in school work, are you "concerned" enough to carry these grades, taking advantage of present educational facilities?

Remember also your "concern" when next you are tempted to write your name or other words on the bathroom wall or any part of school property. Remember your "concern" before you toss that piece of paper in the hall, or cigarette butt on the lawn. Remember your "concern" before you tear that page from a library book, or deface any textbook in any way.

Remember your "concern" as taxpayer dollars replace slashed bus seats or broken windows. Be "concerned" when your loyalty to destructive peers supercedes loyalty to taxpaying parents. Be concerned, but remember we your parents are "concerned" too.

Yours truly,
Mrs. George C. Volling
Rt. 3, Lockport

Editor:

I am writing on behalf of three of my dear pet cats who were killed on Townline Road between 186th and 187th by speeding automobiles within the past one and a half years. Two of these cats were raised in Chicago where they lived for 4 years prior to moving to Mokena, and allowed out of doors much of the time.

We moved to the Mokena area two years were duly placed before the county boards who just as duly received and placed them on file.

The reports were filed with the county boards because they were the only ones empowered to spend the county's money to erect and maintain county buildings.

When the present courthouse was built, the county board, instead of issuing bonds to finance the undertaking, entered into an agreement with the Will County Building Commission to build the structure. The land on which the building stands was deeded over to the commission and it was the commission that floated the bonds, erected the courthouse -- which includes the jail -- and then leased it to the county. It is calculated that it will take about 18 years of rent to pay off the debt to the commission. The property will then revert to the county.

As it stands now the commission is the owner and the county is the tenant. As far as can be determined the various county officers housed in the courthouse would not have to pay the bills if the roof sprung a leak, nor are they expected to make the repairs personally if the county board or the building commission failed to hire the work done.

Therefore, when the grand jury brought in a report finding that the county had a jail with a zipper in it, so to speak, because four inmates had escaped from it, it seemed a bit silly to blame Sheriff Martin Jackson for the condition. He didn't build the jail.

As the sheriff pointed out, after reading the grand jury's report, he has not been able to find anything in the law which gives him authority to enter into contracts or to hire a contractor or other personnel "to make structural alterations or repairs to the jail."

As he reads the statutes it is the duty of the county board to "erect and keep in repair a suitable jail." He went on to say that neither the county board nor the Will County Building Commission have authorized him to make repairs to the jail or provided him with funds to have them made.

He also stated that he is neither an engineer, a contractor nor an architect and that he had nothing to do with the planning or the building of the jail.

He did say that long prior to the first escape last November he had called the artention of the Will County Building Commission, the chairman of the county board and other county officials, what he considered structural deficiencies in the jail section. The building commission finally got repairs started after the first escape but not before another prisoner used the same escape route a few weeks later.

The sheriff in a letter to the state's attorney pointed out that since his requests to the building commission and county board to make the necessary repairs in the county jail have not been complied with, he requests that official to take whatever action he thinks necessary, including the filing of a law suit on behalf of the taxpayers as well as the sheriff, to insure that the repairs recommended are carried out.

The former jail, which stood on the northeast corner of Chicago and Washington streets, across the street from the present courthouse, was a porous-like structure that was not without its share of escapes. Prisoners went out through the roof, the basement, the side and end walls and, on at least two occasions, made use of the doors to make their getaway.

The grand juries of those days took note of such occurrences and urged the county board to have the old jail torn down and build a new one. But it was the board those grand juries addressed. They didn't blame whoever the sheriff was at the time because he was saddled with a poor jail.

But there! One must look forward, not backward. What grand juries did in the past is no criterion for grand juries today. Everything is changing, including grand juries. This last one had military foreman, for instance, which is certainly something new in these parts. Who knows? Perhaps con-con will do away with the grand jury system, which after all is a survival from ancient times, and replace it with a computer, or something.

ago and within a year, two of the pets were killed. My last cat, a Siamese named "Cocoa," was killed on January 26, 1970 by a speeding auto.

True, these are only cats to most people, but they were a part of our family and dearly loved by us. They will be missed very much.

The point here is, these were only cats who were killed, but it may well have been someone's child. Automobiles speed down Townline Road at times from 40 to 55 miles per hour. There are no speed signs posted.

Must we wait to stop the speeding on this street until a child is killed? I know a lot of the speeders, and the automobiles they drive, if it would help to turn in license numbers I would gladly do so. Other neighbors in the area are also concerned about the speeding autos. So let's do something about it before it kills a child.

Start Scavenger Tax Sale Feb. 24

JOLIET -- Another tax sale under the Scavenger Act is to begin in Will County Feb. 24. Two years ago when County Treasurer Clarence Lipman inaugurated such sales here some 3,000 pieces of real estate on which taxes had not been paid for 10 years or more, were put on the block. The sales this year involve only approximately 170 properties.

Two years ago there were properties in Frankfort Township involved. This year there are none on the list from that township. New Lenox, however, has some property on which taxes are long overdue.

The sales will be conducted in the various townships in which the property is located. With the fewer pieces of property, however, the sale schedule has been arranged so that one point will serve for several townships.

For taxes due from Lockport, Homer and New Lenox townships the sale will be held Thursday morning, Feb. 26, at 10 o'clock in the Lockport City Hall, 915 S. State St.

The sale for taxes due in Custer, Reed, Wesley and Wilmington townships is to be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 24 at the Wilmington City Hall. Also slated for Feb. 24 but at 2 p.m. will be a sale in the Troy fire barn for properties in Plainfield, Channahon, Jackson and Troy townships.

Taxes due from Crete Township will be bid in at 10 a.m. March 3 in the Crete Village Hall. The sale for Joliet will be conducted at the courthouse at 10 a.m. March 5.

State's Attorney Louis Bertani, who met with assistant treasurer W.F. Schuetz, county clerk Clara Hartley Woodard and supervisor John Francis, of New Lenox, to set up the schedule.

Bertani explained that the properties will be sold by book and parcel number only. The location of the property and the size will not be given. Individuals interested in a parcel are advised to make their investigation prior to the sale.

Successful bidders will be required to pay cash or give a check for the amount bid. A receipt will be furnished by the deputy treasurer. The county clerk in turn will issue a certificate of purchase and the bidder will be required to pay the current taxes. The county can bid on the properties.

Lipman explained that it takes several years before a tax deed can be issued as a result of the sale. Certain legal procedures must be followed in the meantime.

Mr. and Mrs. Cobbs opened their home on Feb. 9 with 15 members present for the Homeowners meeting. The budget for the 1970 year was presented at this time: $100. to buy fill dirt for playground, $50. for painting and fixing up the playground equipment, $100. to buy concrete for repairing the bus shelters and possibly to fix new entrance way markers instead of painting new signs, $25. for a back stop and new flag pole, $200. for paying insurance and taxes on the playground lots. A new typewriter was approved and will be purchased this week.

It was decided to enter a float in the Little League Parade in May. Mrs. C. Lewis is the chairman. Mrs. O. Sheeman and Mrs. D. Cross of Fernway have offered to help. Anyone else who is interested in helping is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sandy have offered the use of their basement for the Homeowners' meetings. Now that we have a permanent place for our meetings, we would like to invite everyone to come and see what goes on to improve our community...

The Sweetheart Dinner had 7 present at the Blue Willow on Feb. 7. Mrs. L. Scerine won the centerpiece donated by the Homeowners Association that was arranged by Mrs. Judy Head, sister.

(Next time, get draft-free, even, electric heat.)

There's something you really ought to know about flame heating systems: they cause drafts.

Air is consumed in the burning process. So, a draft is created that draws in dirty, cold air from outside.

Electric heat won't do that. Because there's no flame.

Which is why electric heat, and only electric heat, can promise you even, controlled heat that's free from drafts. So if you get that chilly, creepy feeling around your ankles on days when it's cold outside—well, we cannot tell a lie.

Your flame-system did it.

insurance Questions

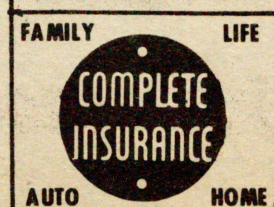

QUESTION:

If in an emergency I have the delivery man at my store use my private car for deliveries, does my ordinary automobile liability insurance cover me?

ANSWER:

Yes, so long as it is an emergency and not your regular practice. If your car was used regularly for deliveries you'd apply for insurance in a different classification.

WILL COUNTY -- Taxpayers who paid their 1968 taxes under protest received notices last week informing them of the decision of the Board of Review regarding the protest.

One is to appeal to the property tax appeal board in Springfield within 20 days of date of notice or to have their lawyers file a suit in the circuit court before March 2, 1970, according to a statement issued by Assistant Treasurer W.F. (Wally) Schuetz.

FLRB Aim Of Senate Bill

By Congressional Quarterly

WILL COUNTY - Labor strikes on farms would be sharply curbed by a bill now being considered by a Senate agriculture subcommittee.

The measure would establish a Farm Labor Relations Board to review farm labor disputes.

It would limit strikes to a single farm. And it would outlaw strikes which threatened to result in permanent loss or damage to crops.

Hearings were held in late January. They are now recessed with a possibility of at least one more day of testimony.

The bill was introduced by Sen. George Murphy (R Calif.). The American Farm Bureau Federation, spokesman for the nation's conservative farm interests, endorsed the Murphy Bill.

Arthur H. West, a member of the AFBF board of directors, on Jan. 20 told the Senate Subcommittee that the proposal was a compromise which "offers substantial advantages to farm workers and substantial advantages to farmers as compared to the existing situation."

Edge L-W In Overtime 62-58

OAK LAWN -- Well, those Oak Lawns took a reef in the sails of the Lincoln-Way varsity basketball craft last Friday night when it won in an overtime contest 62 to 58. Lincoln-Way now stands 7-4 in the conference. Homewood is unbeaten in League play.

Lincoln-Way was leading in the final quarter and then went into a spin. Oak Lawn came on strong while the Knights were faltering and was leading 54 to 52 with just a few seconds to go.

Those seconds were enough for Harold Webb to count a 15-foot jump shot to tie the count and send the game into overtime.

In the overtime, however, it was all Oak Lawn. The Spartans counted eight points to four for the Knights and that was the way it ended up, 62-58.

The first quarter was played even -- 13 to 13. In

Central Slumps To Lose 66-61

LOCKPORT -- Lockport Central led all the way in their Friday night game against Joliet Central. They led until the Steelmen tied the game in the final period and then went on to lose 66-61 to the new champs of the Illini-Eight.

The game was one of the best ever played by either team and the coaches of both squads are to be commended for the quality of basketball seen at Joliet Central's gymnasium. It may be some time before we see action of a like nature by a Lockport team.

Late in the fourth period Lockport led 58-56 and Sylvester Smith stepped to the foul line. Coach Bob Basarich summoned Brad Travis to the side and ordered him to tell the squad to drop the press.

Clarence Bates, not hearing the instructions, took a step in Travis' direction and moved into the lane. The infraction gave the ball to Joliet sans the benefit of Smith's freethrow attempts.

With less than a minute to play Joliet's Charley Hughes sunk a layup to tie the game and send it into overtime. An eight point splurge put the Steelmen in the forefront and the Porters lost their second game of the season to the Joliet five.

On Saturday night the Porters hosted Belvidere in a game which saw the Lockport five come back with a 69-43 win over the non-conference game.

Belvidere did not have the talent to cope with the Porters and Lockport led 40-19 at the half before winning by 25. In the rebounding department it was no contest. Lockport snared 52 off the boards to a total of 24 by the Belvidere five.

West In 71-55 Victory Start

LOCKPORT - A comparatively easy 71-55 victory over Glenbard North, here Wednesday night, was a warmup for the big game of the year for the Spartans against Joliet Central, last Friday night.

Coach Bill Parmentier's squad showed less than all out ability as they hit for 40 percent of their field goals. Ralph Papesh led the scoring with 28 points on 13 of 28 from the floor and 2 out of 3 attempts from the charity line.

The Spartans led in every quarter and at one time sported a 19-point edge. Despite a game rebounding lead of 30 to 20 it was apparent the Spartans were not in com-

The Porters have won 17 games for the season. Their next game is Friday night at Joliet West.

Settle Title Quest at L-W

NEW LENOX -- The Vikings of Homewood-Flossmoor are the winners of the Southwest Suburban Conference basketball crown. There are still a couple of games left on the card but Rich East took care of the situation nicely last Saturday night by beating second place Bremen, 62-59 while Homewood was topping off Lincoln-Way, 54 to 48.

The Bremen Braves have now lost three games so the Vikings could drop their last two contests and still be league champions. It is not likely the Vikings will lose their last two games because they appear to have the Indian sign on the other clubs in the conference. Several times league foes have had the Homewoods on the ropes only to become abashed by the temerity of their daring against the vaunted Vikings and relax their efforts.

Last Saturday night the board of strategy of the Lincoln-Way Knights decided that their boys couldn't run with the Vikings and so decided to slow the action. That is fine and dandy when one can keep control of the ball.

Lincoln-Way didn't and the sad result was that the Knights had made only two points by the end of the first period while holding the Homewoods to nine. In the second quarter the Vikings scored 21 points to the Knights 12 so the halftime count was 30-21.

At the half the board of strategy took off the wraps and Lincoln-Way not only ran with the Vikings but outscored them in both quarters. In the third period Lincoln-Way made 18 points to Homewood's 11, and 16 tallies in the final frame to 13 for the victors.

It is possible that Homewood will do well in the tournaments coming up. It sometimes happens that winners come from well down the list and this could be the year when a SWS school

-- not necessarily Homewood -- could get up to the winners circle. It would certainly be a nice change of pace if one of the schools did because in the past the SWS entries were vanquished early.

"YOU CAN'T do that," is apparently what that Lincoln-Way player in the center is telling No. 55 of the Homewood-Flossmoor team but No. 55, Delis his name is, paid no attention and made the basket. At the end of the game Homewood had more baskets than Lincoln-Way. Incidentally the win at Lincoln-Way put the SWS title on ice for the Homewoods.

Put Finishing Touches On Season

By RUSS SANDBERG

LEMONT -- The 1969-70 basketball season will come to an unsuccessful end soon for all but one team in the Illinois High School Association.

For Lemont High, the countdown begins on Monday evening, Feb. 23, when they take on St. Charles Borromeo of Lockport, in opening round district tourney play at Oswego High.

The Indians and our neighboring seminary leads, take over the court at 8:30 p.m. St. Francis of Wheaton and Aurora Central Catholic tangle in the 7 p.m. lidlifter.

Rounding out the Oswego district slate are Tuesday evening lower bracket games involving host Oswego-Geneva, plus Batavia-Mooseheart.

Should Coach John Jones' club successfully hurdle this initial obstacle, they then will face the St. Francis-Central Catholic winner at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 25.

The two semi final winners clash for the title beginning at 7 p.m. on the evening of Friday, Feb. 27. The top team then moves on to regional tourney play at Aurora East High.

Lemont still has some unfinished business to take care of however, including a Friday, Feb. 21 visit to Yorkville High. A win over the Foxes would give us an 8-6 Northeast Conference reading, and an undisputed third place listing.

The Jones Boys, with an overall season reading of 13-10, move into the Yorkville fray fresh off the strength of successive conference wins over Wilmington and Plano.

The Wildcats were tamed 60-52 at Wilmington on Friday. Next the locals treated a home parents night following to a tasty 70-67 win over Plano on Saturday, Feb. 14.

Neither Wilmington nor Lemont exactly singed the nets in their Friday, Feb. 13 engagement, but the Injuns were able to muster an edge in the field goal attempt department. Senior center Mike Heinz, with 15 points, led a balanced Lemont offense. Dennis Bubinas chipped in with 14 markers.

A trio of 6 shooters were Dave Staudt, Don Nelson and Mike Hennebry. Also getting a piece of the offensive action were Pierce Spencer (5), Dick Pierce (4), Rich Hoffman (2), Mark Forzley (2).

Lemont had a trio of sharpshooters in the win over Plano. Leading the way were seniors Pierce Spencer, Mike Heinz and Dennis Bubinas, who connected at rates of 16, 14 and 11 points respectively.

Mark Forzley and Don Nelson were a pair of 8 shooters. Rounding out the balanced Indian attack were Mike Hennebry (6), Dick Pierce (5) and Dave Staudt (2).

Spartans In Double Loss

LOCKPORT -- Lockport West dropped to 1-6 in Illini-Eight competition as the Spartans dropped an 80-73 decision to a fired-up Joliet West team Friday night.

Coach Bill Parmentier could not conceal his admiration for Joliet's Dick Fick who tallied 34 points for the winners. Ralph Papesh, Lockport's standout point harvester, had 26 points for the night.

Lockport was outscored the first two periods before finally outshooting the Tigers in the third quarter and outscoring them 19-13. The outburst was too little and too late as the Tigers smelled victory.

On Saturday night the Spartans journeyed to Lombard to challenge the Montini five and were once again on the short end of the score as the host team won 84-74.

Ralph Papesh put on a one man show with 35 points to record his season high. Papesh is now averaging 22 points per game.

Despite a respectable .483 percentage on field goals the Spartans could not match the .564 average of the Montini squad. The Spartans now stand 8-12 for the season and will play Joliet East this Friday night at Joliet.
